

Cemetery Committee Report
October 3, 2017

September 8, 2017

Gary Ralston and John Kassner went to the Weyers- McGuire Cemetery near Magnolia Beach. The area around the known graves was thoroughly probed with a rod. Nothing was found. Mr. Miller (neighbor) shredded the grass to make the probing easier. Grass around the fly ash pad was pulled. In addition, weedeating was done around Little Mary's grave to make it more accessible.

Mary Belle Meitzen began the cleanup at Ranger Cemetery in Port Lavaca and requested additional help. On this day John Kassner went to the cemetery with a chain saw and cut up the branches that had fallen due to Hurricane Harvey.

September 22, 2017

Steve Koch, Gary Ralston and John Kassner met at Ranger Cemetery to remove the branches and take them to the street for easier pickup.
