

Calhoun County Historical Commission
Cemetery/ Marker Committee
February 14, 2012

- Cemetery
 - Responded to Daughters of Republic of Texas Relics, Trails, & Historic Sites Kam Wagert for correct wording on Indianola Cemetery Marker needed for DRT Medallion.
 - Indianola 1950 DRT plaque measured by Steve Koch and Mary Belle Meitzen; Discussed wording for 2012 DRT Cemetery Restoration plaque with Steve Koch, Joe Brett. Received Correct title wording from DRT Shirley Barnett
 - Obtained bids for the 2012 DRT Restoration plaque, 21" x 13", from two sources: Pesek-Hermes Memorials, Jones Family Monuments, to be presented at February meeting
 - Indianola Cemetery
 - Restoration Sponsored By
 - The Daughters of the Republic
 - Of Texas District VII &
 - Indianola Cemeteries
 - Restoration Fund
 - October 2006-January 2012
- Thanks to Joe Brett, Steve Koch and Mary Meitzen for building and installing Captain Mainland's plaque at Indianola Cemetery. Committee Email notification did not go through.
- Received Port O Connor Cemetery Exhibit A Map and surrounding landowners letters from THC Annette Bethke. Received current landowners from Calhoun County Consolidate Tax Office, mailed to THC; Received corrected copies of letters to current landowners surrounding Port O Connor Cemetery
- Markers
- Received notice from THC Sarah McCleskey Texas Historical Commission Commissioners officially approved Calhoun County's four historical marker applications on Jan. 27, 2012. Marker payment invoices due include: Ed Bell -$1,000.00, Sgt. William Henry Barner-$1,000.00,

World War II Calhoun County Participation-$1,500,
Chihuahua Trail Terminus in Indianola-$1,500

- Received correspondence from Michael Nash researching Indianola as a main slave entry port.

Additional Note

Sixteen Calhoun County Historical Commission Members attended Dean and Barbara Johnstone Building Dedication on January 21, 2012 in Downtown Port Lavaca.